

January 8, 2021

About response to the reissuance of a state of emergency

In response to the reissuance of a state of emergency based on the new coronavirus special measures law on January 7, Takamatsu Construction Group Co.,Ltd. and its group companies have decided to continue to take the following measures to protect the lives and bodies of customers, employees of Takamatsu Construction Group and group companies, and construction engineers of subcontractors.

We would like to thank all our customers and related parties for their understanding of this circumstances.

Details

1. Scope
Permanent office units such as headoffice, branches and sales offices in the area where the state of emergency has been declared.
2. Response period
From January 8 to February 7, 2021
3. Response policy
  - We encourages staggered commuting and remote working.
  - In general, we shall continue business trips and transfers for non-essential reasons are prohibited.
  - It shall continue to be prohibited to enter places where many people gather, such as meetings.
4. Construction site in the target areas
The decision to continue construction will be made after consultation with the customers, and if it is to be continued, we will take thorough measures to prevent infectious diseases.

【Contact Us】

Takamatsu Construction Group Co.,Ltd.
Group Integration H.Q. Corporate Communications Div.
TEL : +81 3 3455 8108